Servel. Frestdent-elect clevelant system remarks in this particular have thrown a damper on the notorious political trick-sters' schemes. Why, sirs, oftentimes negroes have told us that they were far better off in slavery than now, but rest assured. we southerners want them not Those evil-minded politicians, who have wired Blaine, have evidently been reading "Uncle Tom's Cabin," or some other lying book, prejudicial to the south and the staunch Democratic element in it.

the staunch Democratic element in it.

They desire to open again the breach; curse, if possible, another conflict letween the blue and the grey; but they are going about it very unwisely. The country will be justly governed. With Cleveland as President, Hendricks as Vice-President, and the file filled with such able statesmen and diplomats as Carlisle, Bayard, Randall, Morrison, Watterson, Beck and others, we are not in the least fearful. Davy Crockett, the Watterson, Beck and others, we are not in the least fearful. Davy Crockett, the hero martyr of the Alamo, in the struggle for Texan independence in 1835, sagely remarked: "Be sure you are right; then go ahead." We know we are right, and go ahead we will.
